

Mary Temple
Artist Statement

For the past 30 years I've been interested in making paintings that locate between the spaces of intuition and conception, from abstraction to depiction, from framework to deconstruction. My concerns begin with the natural world, responding to light and shadow, shape and color. From there my interior, personal process, my feminism and activism give shape to ideation, translating and rerouting it to image.